

Grosse Pointe, Michigan
March 11th and 12th, 2010

LocalMotionGreen, the Less Cancer Campaign, and the Center for Environmental Oncology
at the University of Pittsburgh Cancer Institute

Present

Dr. Maryann Donovan speaking on "Healthy Choices - Healthy Families" on Thursday, March 11, 7 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan 48236.

Dr. Donovan will also present her lecture on Friday, March 12, 10 a.m. at Children's Hospital of Michigan Auditorium, 3901 Beaubien, Detroit, Michigan.

Dr. Donovan will present the latest scientific findings and explain how to minimize exposure to environmental hazards. She will offer solutions to families looking to make healthy choices and avoid hidden toxins in everyday life.

Dr. Maryann Donovan, PhD, MPH is the Director of the Center for Environmental Oncology at the University of Pittsburgh Cancer Institute, where she works to share scientific evidence linking environmental exposures and health effects. Dr. Donovan, a cellular and molecular biologist, has spent more than 30 years in academia and has also worked to improve cancer diagnosis.

LocalMotionGreen is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting healthy people and a healthy planet through reduced exposure and use of harmful chemicals. We empower people by providing knowledge of ways to reduce this exposure in daily life. LMG was founded in 1999 with a vision that still holds today: A country in which preventable causes of cancer and other illnesses stemming from environmental toxicity have been eradicated.

Less Cancer Campaign is a program of Next Generation Choices Foundation. Founded in January 2004, Next Generation Choices Foundation creates and dispenses educational tools and advocates for partnerships with communities for reducing cancer-causing environmental exposures.
